Introduction

About this book:

This book contains a set of 24 word family reading pages designed to help beginning and struggling readers develop reading comprehension. Each passage includes sight words and a variety of CVC and CCVC words from the focus word family. Each page features picture support for children to color.

Directions for use:

Children read the short passage and then answer the two questions at the bottom of each page by coloring the correct circle. They can also highlight the sentence in the passage that contains the answer.
Happy Teaching :)
