Introduction

Introduce your students to a fun and interactive way to master letter recognition with this Alphabet Coloring Book. It features 26 half-pages designed to help children practice both upper and lower case letters through a colorful and hands-on activity.

Product Features:

- 26-page coloring book: This half-page booklet is designed to be printed, cut in half, and stapled together, creating an engaging learning resource for young learners.
- Color code learning: Each page includes a color code that guides children in coloring different sections of the picture, with specific colors assigned to upper and lower case letters.
- Focus on beginning sounds: The picture on each page starts with the focus letter, helping children connect letter recognition with beginning sounds.
- Upper and lower case recognition: Children will practice identifying and coloring both uppercase and lowercase letters, reinforcing their understanding of letter formation and recognition.
- Educational and fun: This booklet is designed to make learning the alphabet an enjoyable experience, combining coloring with letter recognition to enhance early literacy skills.

Perfect for preschool and kindergarten classrooms, the Alphabet Coloring Booklet provides a versatile and interactive approach to learning letters, making it an excellent addition to your teaching resources.

Happy Teaching :)
