Introduction

Introduce young children to community helpers with the engaging "Who Uses This?" Community Helper Cards Activity! This interactive resource helps preschool and kindergarten students learn about different community helpers and the tools they use.

Features:

- 26 community helper cards: Each card features a picture of a tool or item along with three pictures of community helpers, allowing children to choose the correct helper who uses that tool.

How to Use:

- Preparation: Print and laminate the pages to make the cards durable for long-term use. Cut apart the individual cards to create a set for the activity. To make it a self-checking activity, place a sticker or draw a circle on the back of the card where the correct answer is located.
- Activity: Present the cards to children and ask them to clip a peg on the card next to the community helper who uses the displayed tool. Children can then flip the card over to check their answers, making the activity both engaging and self-correcting.

Educational Benefits:

- Role Recognition: Helps children learn to recognize different community helpers and the tools they use in their jobs.
- Fine motor skills: Using pegs to mark answers enhances fine motor development and hand-eye coordination.
- Critical thinking: Encourages children to think critically about the function of each tool and who would use it, fostering cognitive development.

This versatile activity is ideal for preschool, homeschool, or daycare environments, providing a fun and educational way for children to learn about community helpers.

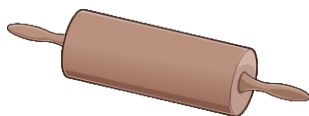

Happy Teaching! :)
