INTRODUCTION

Make learning letter classification exciting with the Fire and Water Consonant and Vowel Sort! Children will sort water droplet letter cards into the correct fire image, identifying whether each letter is a consonant or a vowel.

What's Included:

- 2 fire-themed sorting mats: One for consonants, one for vowels.
- Water droplet letter cards: A full set of alphabet letter cards for sorting.
- Recording page: Features two columns for consonants and vowels. Children can write the letters or use alphabet stamps to place the letters in the correct column.

How to Use:

- Materials needed: Alphabet stamps (optional)
- Setup: Print, laminate, and cut out the sorting mats and letter cards for durability.
- Activity: Children examine each water droplet card and determine if it represents a consonant or vowel, placing it on the correct fire sorting mat. They record their answers by writing or stamping the letters in the appropriate column.

Educational Benefits:

- Letter recognition: Improves ability to differentiate between consonants and vowels.
- Alphabet knowledge: Reinforces understanding of the alphabet and letter functions.
- Sorting skills: Strengthens categorization and logical thinking.

This hands-on activity is perfect for literacy centers or small groups, providing a fun, thematic way to practice consonants and vowels.

Happy Teaching :)
