Word Family Color It!
Color the pictures that belong to the "an" word family.

The word 'can' is written in large, hollow letters. Inside the letters are various line drawings for coloring. The 'c' contains: a baby bottle, a smartphone, a chicken, a boy running, a no smoking sign, and a dollar sign. The 'a' contains: a fan, a can of food, a bowl of soup, a box of cereal, a bed, and a chicken drumstick. The 'n' contains: a calendar, a bowl of soup, a man, a boy in a hospital bed, a shopping bag, a plate with a fork, and a pudding.

Introduction

The Word Families Color It is a fun and engaging way for students to build phonemic awareness and reading fluency. These printable worksheets help children identify, read, and color pictures that belong to the same word family, supporting early decoding and rhyming skills.

This packet includes 32 word family coloring pages featuring short vowel families. Each page focuses on a specific word family, allowing students to practice hearing and identifying rhyming word endings in a hands on way. Both American and Australian spelling versions are included.

What's included

- 32 word family pages

How to use

- Use during literacy centers, small group instruction, or phonics intervention
- Introduce the target word family and review examples before students begin
- Encourage children to say each word aloud while coloring matching pictures
- Use a few pages each week for review or independent practice

Skills covered

- Word family recognition
- Phonemic awareness and rhyming
- Blending and decoding CVC and CCVC words
- Early reading fluency and vocabulary development

Happy Teaching! :)
