Introduction

This resource includes seven Spring themed emergent readers designed to help young learners practice reading simple sentences with predictable text and supportive illustrations.

Each booklet contains one cover page and five reading pages. The short, repetitive sentences help children build confidence while practicing important early literacy skills such as sight word recognition, vocabulary, colors, numbers, and positional words.

All readers are provided in black and white, allowing children to color the pictures and interact with the pages as they read.

The readers included in this resource are:

1. Mother and Baby – farm animals; focuses on the sight word and
2. Little Things – creepy crawlies; focuses on the sight word little
3. Baby Talk – woodland babies; focuses on the sight word said
4. Tree in Spring – spring trees; focuses on the sight word in
5. Spring Cleaning – positional words: outside, inside, top, behind, under
6. Flowers in My Garden – focuses on color words
7. Raindrops on My Umbrella – focuses on numbers 1–10

How to Assemble the Booklets

1. Print the pages.
2. Cut the pages in half.
3. Stack the pages in order.
4. Staple along the left side to create the booklet.

Each printed page produces two booklets, making it easy to prepare copies for your students.

Teaching Tip

Encourage children to trace, rainbow write, or color the focus sight words while reading each page. This helps reinforce word recognition and supports early reading development.

Important Note

Two versions of the Raindrops on My Umbrella reader are included:

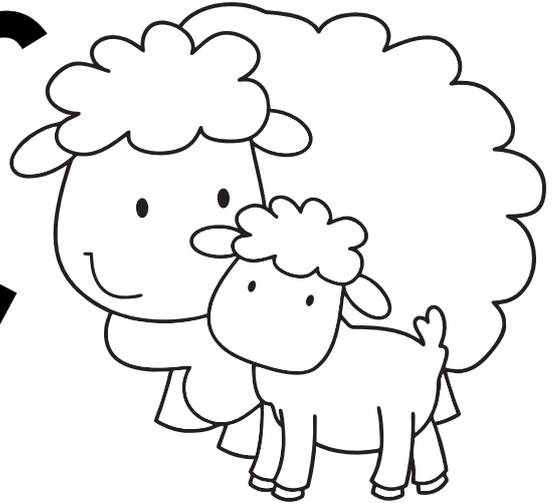

- Version 1: children color the raindrops.
- Version 2: children draw the correct number of raindrops on or near the umbrella.

Please print only the version you plan to use.

Happy Teaching! :)
